

Dog Gone Purrfect Calendar Photo Contest

Is your dog a "model" citizen? Does your kitty look stunning doing the "catwalk"? Well, if so, then you need to enter them in our Dog Gone Purrfect Calendar Photo Contest. There will be a $5 entry fee for each photo submitted.

Entries will be judged by the public via online voting. One cat and two dogs will be chosen for each month. The winning photos will be published in a 2007 calendar which will be for sale at our Giant Rummage Sale and Pet Portraits in November, and will also be available at the animal shelter. Photos need to be taken at the highest possible resolution so that they can be resized without becoming distorted. Entry deadline is September 23rd, and pictures will be available for online viewing and voting from September 25th through October 25th. To submit your photos (you can submit as many entries as you would like): Please visit our website at www.andersonky.petfinder.com

PLEASE-NO SUBMISSIONS OF LITTERS OF PUPPIES OR KITTENS. AS CUTE AS THEY MAY BE, WE TRY TO ENCOURAGE PEOPLE TO HAVE THEIR PETS SPAYED AND NEUTERED. DISPLAYING PHOTOS OF YOUNG PUPPIES AND KITTIES WOULD BE A SETBACK IN OUR GOAL TO EDUCATE PEOPLE ABOUT THE IMPORTANCE OF HAVING THEIR PETS FIXED TO PUT AN END TO PET OVERPOPULATION.

Tick Removal Tip: A School Nurse has written the info below -- good enough to share ----- I had a pediatrician tell me what she believes is the best way to remove a tick. This is great , because it works in those places where it's sometimes difficult to get to with tweezers: between toes, in the middle of a head full of dark hair, etc. Apply a glob of liquid soap to a cotton ball. Cover the tick with the soap-soaked cotton ball and swab it for a few seconds (15-20), the tick will come out on it's own and be stuck to the cotton ball when you lift it away. This technique has worked every time I've used it (and in KY, that was frequently), and it's much less traumatic for the patient and easier for me. Unless someone is allergic to soap, I can't see that this would be damaging in any way. I even had my doctor's wife call me for advice because she had one stuck to her back and she couldn't reach it with tweezers. She used this method and immediately called me back to say, "It worked!"

SPOTLIGHT ON:

#73 Tuffy-Sponsored

Domestic Short Hair - gray and white

"Hiya! How ya doin? Me, I'm okay. Well, except for being cramped in this little cage with my whole family. I tell ya, sometimes it's not all that great having a big family. Besides, now the people at the shelter have the huge task of trying to find homes for all of us! Whew! They've got their work cut out for them! Why don't you make it easier on them and just come out and adopt one of us?" Thank you to an anonymous donor, who sponsored a portion of Tuffy's adoption fee. Now he can go home at a reduced rate!

#198 Kato-Sponsored

German Shepherd Dog

"My name is Kato and I'm a gorgeous german shepherd dog who they picked up over on Copperfield Drive on July 23rd. I'm very sweet and I have a wonderful personality, so if my owner doesn't come out here to get me by July 30th, I'll be ready to go home with you!" Thank you to an anonymous donor, who sponsored a portion of Kato's adoption fee. Now he can go home at a reduced rate!

#241 Lisa-Sponsored

Domestic Short Hair-black and white

"My name is Lisa and I'm one of three kitties who came here after our owner decided they couldn't keep us anymore. Well, actually, she never really intended to keep us. Her kitty wasn't fixed and so she had us and she tried to find homes for us, but nobody wanted us. I don't know why anybody wouldn't want an adorable little kitty though!" Thank you to Ronnie Dennis and Larry Brown, who sponsored a portion of Lisa's adoption fee. Now she can go home at a reduced rate!

#204 Ginny-Sponsored

German Shepherd Dog Mix

"Hi. My name is Ginny. I apologize for my pictures today. I'm a little bit silly and I just wanted to lay across my dog house and smile for the girl taking the pictures. She kept telling me that she needed some different poses, but I wasn't too worried about it. I just know somebody'll come adopt me. I mean, how can you resist a face like this?" Thank you to an anonymous donor, who sponsored a portion of Ginny's adoption fee. Now she can go home at a reduced rate!

SPOTLIGHT ON:

#276 Chelsie-Sponsored

Domestic Short Hair - orange and white

"Hi. My name is Chelsie and I came here after somebody dropped me in a crate at the animal control officer's house while he was gone. He came home and there we sat! I'm a really lovable little kitty and I just know I'd make a great pet for somebody...hopefully you!" Thank you to Ronnie Dennis and Larry Brown, who sponsored a portion of Chelsie's adoption fee. Now she can go home at a reduced rate!

#210 Shane-Sponsored

Australian Shepherd

"My name is Shane, and I arrived at the shelter several days ago. I was really really scared at first, but I'm starting to come out of my shell now that I've realized no one here wants to hurt me. It's not the most fun place to be, but it's not so bad. I'm still just a little bit skittish, but I'm quick to warm up to people and I'm hoping to get adopted soon." Thank you to an anonymous donor, who sponsored a portion of Shane's adoption fee. Now he can go home at a reduced rate!

#261 Chessie-Sponsored

Tabby

"My name is Chessie and I came to the shelter with my brother. I'm the calmer of the two. I'm still plenty playful, just not as "in your face" as he is. Our owner brought us here cause he said he had too many cats. Seems to me the obvious solution is to get them fixed so they'll quit having babies!" Thank you to an anonymous donor, who sponsored a portion of Chessie's adoption fee. Now she can go home at a reduced rate!

#215 King-Sponsored

Rottweiler Mix

"Hello there! My name is King and I'm one of the many dogs out at the shelter waiting for a home. My owner moved away and left me with a friend until she could come back to get me. She said she'd only be gone a few days, but she never returned. So then I had to come out here to wait for my new family to come get me. I'm sure it won't take long, so if you're interested, you better get your application in quick!" Thank you to an anonymous donor, who sponsored a portion of King's adoption fee. Now he can go home at a reduced rate!

WE DESPERATELY NEED VOLUNTEERS FOR THE BURGEOO FESTIVAL!

Because one of our volunteers will be getting married the weekend of the Burgoo Festival, we are going to be short on volunteers to work our booth at the Burgoo Festival. Three of our more active “booth-keepers” will be unable to work both Friday and Saturday, due to being heavily involved in the wedding. Several others will also be attending the wedding that Saturday afternoon. What this means is that we have to find some volunteers to help work our Burgoo booth, or we will be unable to participate in this year’s Festival. This is a great opportunity for publicity for the Humane Society and we would really hate to miss it. If you can offer a couple of hours of your time during these three days, please contact Cheryl Steenerson at paysteen@iglou.com or contact Humane Society president Donna Callahan at 839-4623.
